His Highness

GIVING THANKS may be made so formal that the Almighty doubts the existence of gratitude. It was the poor Publican's prayer that was commended to us all.

OHIO CHRISTMAS SEAL COMMITTEE

Newspapers and other mediums of publicity are responsible in large measure for bringing the fight against tuberculosis well along the road to victory in Ohio," declared Dr. Robt.
G. Patterson, secretary of the Ohio Public Health Association, today in announcing names of a committee of Ohio newspaper editors who have consented to serve on a state educational committee to promote the sale of tuberculosis Christmas Seals this year.

A. E. McKee, editorial writer for the Ohio State Journal, Columbus, is chairman of this committee. Other members are, Joseph Garretson, Cincinnati; Eric C. Hopwood and John T. Bourke, Cleveland; Egbert Mack, Sandusky; W. C. Burkham, Dayton; George V. Swardin, Springfield; John Shearer, Marysville; Harry E. Taylor, Portsmouth; G. W. C. Perry, Chillicothe; James W. Faulkner, E. E.
Cook, James F. Carroll, Don K. Martin and E. W. Baird, Columbus; W.
O. Little, Zanesville; W. A. Campbell, Lima; George E. Freese, Canton; W. Kee Maxwell, Akron; W. F. Hed-rick, Toledo; Samuel G. McClure, Youngstown.

A letter sent by Chairman McKee to editors of all Ohio papers, points out that although the death rate from tuberculosis has been reduced from 150 to 102 per 100,000 population in the last ten years, there are still more than 50,000 active cases of tuberculosis in the state and more than 5,000 deaths annually from this disease and that it is essential to intensify publicity regarding methods by which the individual may guard against the disease.

The combined educational and financial effort of the anti-tuberculosis forces of the state is made possible by the sale of Christmas seals each year and Ohio is expected to sell 30,000, 000 of these little messengers of health for use on Christmas mail.
